

Mathematics, Statistics, and Computer Science @ UIC

November 30, 2008

Siadat Awarded Haimo Prize

MSCS alumnus Vali Siadat (PhD 1990, DA 1997), a professor at Daley College for 26 years, has been awarded the Deborah and Franklin Tepper Haimo Award of Distinguished Teaching of Mathematics. The prize--considered the MAA's most prestigious teaching award will be presented at the Prize Session of the Joint Meeting in Washington.

Siadat is currently Chair of the Mathematics Department at Daley College. He earned both his Ph.D. and D.A. degree under Emeritus Professor Yorham Sagher.

Here is an article from the Sun Times.